PUBLIC SCHOOL

EST. 1879  STAND TALL – RESPECT ALL

Dear parents, carers and community members,

Welcome to week 4, last week students were impressive with their attitude to the NAPLAN assessment. Students showed a positive work ethic and their efforts were commendable, well done Year 3 and 5! The papers will now be assessed and schools and families will receive the results in term 3.

There was an Oral Health Meeting at the school last week attended by AMS, Health, Pre-school, Tabulam Goori Child and Family Project, School, Family Referral Service. As a result our students will be getting an oral health program which will support dental care and treatment in the near future.

Poppy Harry, Pop Lewis and Nan Carmel have been working on another display for the Wahlubal History and Culture Centre. 'The Ration Tree' is going to tell the history of the ration days in Tabulam. Pop Lewis is also starting up our Aboriginal boys dance group again and they are very excited!

Year 4/5/6 are going to be involved in a fishing excursion program with Fisheries and local police liaison staff. Students took notes home last week and if they are to attend the notes MUST be returned by Friday. All students will receive instruction, fishing gear and clothing.

Next week (week 5) Dr Jackie Andrews will be visiting on Tuesday 29th May.

The Zone Cross Country will take place at Corndale on Friday 1st June.

Students are doing wonderful work in their classrooms showing that they are 'safe, responsible, respectful learners'. Well done to all!

The following students are on GOLD for Being Safe, Being Responsible, Being Respectful, Being a Learner:-

K/1 –Mason Davitt, Ricky Adams, Daniel Johnson-Brady, Savannah Simon, Kiziyah Roberts-Walker, Jyharla Collins, Dellzaliah Adams, Tayshaun Simon, Laquiesha Williams.

Year 2/3 – Sophia Hippi, Izaiah Ward, Gracie Martin, Holly Davitt, Shantelle Hippi, Tasharni McGrady, Leanita Hickling, Shane Collins-Adams, Derek Hickling-Torrens.

Year 4/5/6 Andre Avery, Hailey Peterson, Jordan Peterson, Ponjum Ward.

Different Teacher - Same Respect Award for Week 3 was won by Jyharla Collins. It is wonderful to see so many students going into the 'Different teacher – Same Respect draw each week. Keep up the good work!

Have a great week!

All our students are learning in a variety of ways.

Stanley Paste was getting bullied at school because he was to little to play basketball. Eleanor Cabbage was a new student and she got bullied at school and teased. Stanley Paste and Eleanor did not fight and Eleanor helped Stanley Paste by opening the door for him. They were best friends.

By Kenneth

Stanley Paste was little. He was teased. Eleanor Cabbage was a new girl. Stanley Paste and Eleanor Cabbage were friends.

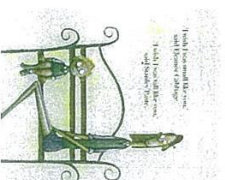

By Ricky

K/1 have been doing a recount on the Book Stanley Paste.

Here are some samples of their work.

Stanley Paste was very little and the kids were teasing him at school. A new girl came to school and the other kids were teasing her. Stanley was nice to her because she was different to. They were good friends.

By Kiziyah
